

Year 7 History

Overview: English at Year 7 will build on key skills that students have learned at Key Stage 2, as well as starting to prepare them for the demands of the iGCSE course. They will take a journey through Roman Britain where they will learn about life under the Roman Empire. They will then move on to The Medieval Church, learn about the Magna Carta and King John before learning about life and death in the Middle Ages. They will conclude their studies learning about The War of The Roses.
